Data professionals, researchers, industry leaders, entrepreneurs and policymakers from all disciplines and geographies will reconvene from April 2-4, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania for RDA's 13th Plenary Meeting (P13). RDA Plenaries are held twice a year, at various locations across the globe.

With the theme, "With Data Comes Responsibility," P13 will explore how the international, inter- and transdisciplinary nature of RDA has helped to lay a foundation for global partnerships and addressing responsibility throughout the data-lifecycle and across all domains. Know for its track record of success represented by strong attendance, concrete outcomes, and overwhelmingly positive meeting satisfaction and value for attendees, RDA Plenaries are consistently successful in facilitating the international RDA data community in connecting data conversations across the globe and among all disciplines.
