1. Services provided via the Website

Access to services provided via the Website ("Services") is, in part, restricted to registered users – i.e., users with a registered Website account – although some Services are open to all Website users. The creation of an account and access to the Website is generally free of charge; however, as described below, certain Services may be subject to payment.

- a. Registered members

The Website is intended to allow individuals interested in contributing to FAIRsFAIR's goals to participate in the development of those goals. In particular, by creating a registered account, users will be able to become actively involved in FAIRsFAIR's work, apply to the FAIRsFAIR's calls, participate to surveys.

- b. Newsletters and communications

The Data Controller will include members of FAIRsFAIR within specific mailing lists, to ensure that those members are kept updated regarding important news and events related to the Website's scope, by sending out informative newsletters and other communications to registered users (unless they opt-out of this).

- c. Events

FAIRsFAIR may organise meetings for its community of registered users, which take place in different places around Europe and beyond, seeking to bring together a unique community of research data practitioners and industry and policy stakeholders to pursue the specific objectives of FAIRsFAIR. Via the Website, registered users are able to sign-up to attend events and webinars for free or at a cost (paid via an external payment processor).

- d. Submission of applications

The Website also allows registered users to respond to different calls made by FAIRsFAIR, including to apply to certain positions/functions within FAIRsFAIR (namely, the European Group of FAIR Champions), to apply to become a host for upcoming FAIRsFAIR events.

- e. User support

Any questions concerning FAIRsFAIR's activities in general can be addressed via the

General Enquiry Form, available at: [info \[AT\] fairsfair \[DOT\] eu](mailto:info@fairsfair.eu)
