"New anthropological horizons in and beyond Europe"

EASA 2020 Lisboa

16th EASA Biennial Conference
21-24 July 2020

Date:
21 July 2020 to 24 July 2020
Location:
Lisbon, Portugal

The history of EASA conferences started 30 years ago in Portugal, in Coimbra, with the conference 'Anthropology and Europe'. Now EASA2020 is inviting you all to join in celebrating the anniversary and deliberating the present in Lisbon, at the conference New anthropological horizons in and beyond Europe, taking place from 21 to 24 July 2020.

Digital research infrastructures in social and cultural anthropology: approaches and challenges for conducting, archiving and sharing research.

As part of the EASA2020 conference, a panel on digital research infrastructures in social and cultural anthropology is scheduled on 20 January 2020.
