ExPaNDS invites you to attent its event on Thursday 30th September 2021. The event is aimed at librarians and data mangers who work with and support Photon and Neutron science facilities. In particular, this symposium focuses on the interface between publications and data. How can we bring these together better for the benefit of all? Where are the gaps? What do we need to bridge them?

The symposium is a full day event taking place virtually over Zoom, divided into two 2-hour morning and afternoon sessions.

Please see below our draft agenda (time CEST)

- 10:00 - 10:10 Introduction - morning session
- 10:10 - 11:00 Data Licensing & Legislation
