

19 June 2019

OAI meetings are one of Open Access / Open Science meetings in Europe in the year in which they are held. Their focus is on engaging with stakeholders in the scholarly communications chain.

This year, OAI 11 – The CERN-UNIGE Workshop on Innovations in Scholarly Communication will be held at University of Geneva on June 19 -21 2019. The main theme of this edition is: “Open Science – its impact and potential as a driver for radical change”.

On the first day of the conference, different topics on FAIR data principles will be tackled such as:

- Making FAIR Easy
- FAIR Data Management and Stewardship – A Funder Perspective
- Bringing researchers along on the road to FAIR data

Some of the keynote speakers are:

- Bernard Rentier will talk about evaluation processes in an Open Science environment
- Jean-Claude Burgelman will close the 3-day Workshop with a paper entitled: "Open Science: what has been done so far in EU policy and what is left?"

© Copyright 2020 – FAIRsFAIR “Fostering FAIR Data Practices In Europe” has received funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 project call H2020-INFRAEOSC-2018-2020 Grant agreement 831558. The content of this document does not represent the opinion of the European Union, and the European Union is not responsible for any use that might be made of such content.

To know more details about OAI11: The CERN-UNI GENEVA Workshop visit the official event website.

© Copyright 2020 – FAIRsFAIR “Fostering FAIR Data Practices In Europe” has received funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 project call H2020-INFRAEOSC-2018-2020 Grant agreement 831558. The content of this document does not represent the opinion of the European Union, and the European Union is not responsible for any use that might be made of such content.