

Is your repository currently registered with re3data, FAIRsharing or other registry service?

Following this webinar, do you plan to register your repository with one or more registry services?

For those of you with entries in registry services already, do you plan to update your current registry descriptions based on what you heard today?

